

PREVIOUS WINNERS

2021

Lori Cooper

As a former administrator at Stonebrook Healthcare in Concord, Lori and her team obtained the state's first AHCA Gold, Excellence in Programming Award. Lori is a licensed administrator in three states and has served on numerous CAHF committee's and leadership position culminating with her service as Chair of the Board of Directors.

Ron Wall

With more than 30 years of experience in long term care, Ron has been a program director, administrator, corporate consultant and owner. He serves as the vice chair of the CAHF Political Action Committee and has been a long-time participant in the Public Advocacy Committee. Ron is an active participant in association political activities and a generous supporter of CAHF.

2019

Bill Wilson

Regular attendees of CAHF's Legal Series or members who attend sessions on elder abuse, fraud or arbitration have been on the receiving end of valuable legal insights from Bill Wilson. A partner in the law firm Wilson Getty, Bill is a frequent lecturer at CAHF conferences, sharing stories and advice about legal challenges facing providers. He has successfully defended a number of CAHF members and long-term care clients against civil liability claims. Bill has been an active member of the CAHF Legal Subcommittee and a relentless supporter of the association.

Nanci Wilson

Nanci brings energy and passion to every position she holds. Nanci is a licensed physical therapist and clinical instructor, an RCFE and Home Care Administrator, and board certified in wound management. She was responsible for 32 facilities at North American as Vice President of Rehab Services, but Nanci has spent much of the latter part of her career at Plum Healthcare. As director of Rehab Services or as VP for Research and Development, Nanci has used her skills to create focus and vision in areas of clinical and financial compliance. Lately, she has been instrumental in helping providers understand the new PDPM payment model. She remains an active member of CAHF's Government Relations and Strategic Planning committees.

