

Thomas E. Spindle Award Winners

Thomas E. Spindle, an active CAHF participant and member of the Board of Directors, was killed in a 1969 plane crash in Alaska. Following his death, the Board created an annual recognition award in his honor. The Thomas E. Spindle Memorial Award recognizes an individual who has contributed considerable time and knowledge and provided exemplary service to CAHF.

Dick MacFarlane

Dick MacFarlane is the first Associate member in CAHF history selected as a Thomas E. Spindle Award winner.

Dick has devoted more than 29 years to a career with HPSI, a large group purchasing organization where he works extensively with nursing homes and assisted living headquarters as vice president of national accounts. A graduate of Brigham Young University, Dick is also a committee member for the Boy Scouts of America. He is a dedicated, dependable volunteer at major CAHF conferences and HPSI has been a generous supporter of CAHF as a longtime Preferred Provider.

Dick says his greatest accomplishment is raising his seven children and enjoying his eight grandchildren. Outside of the office, he enjoys spectator activities like NASCAR.
