CAHF Welcomes New Preferred Provider
Modern Capital Executive Solutions Joins Growing List

SACRAMENTO – The California Association of Health Facilities (CAHF) welcomes Modern Capital Executive Solutions (MCES) as its newest Preferred Provider. MCES helps organizations grow by retaining, recruiting, and rewarding its top-level talent via supplemental benefits and income.

“The expertise, knowledge and support provided by Modern Capital Executive Solutions can assist CAHF’s members work towards programs tailored to their needs,” said CAHF CEO/President Craig Cornett. “We are pleased to have MCES become one of CAHF’s Preferred Product & Service Providers.”

MCES has more than 20 years of experience consulting on key personnel retention, reward, and recruitment plans, as well as investment and expense mitigation. The company joins 10 other CAHF Preferred Product & Service Providers to offer unique resources and savings to its members while supporting CAHF activities.

CAHF’s Preferred Product & Service Providers develop a comprehensive package of programs of significant value to CAHF members.
