

According to the Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services (CMS), California ranks in the top four best states in 13 separate nursing home quality performance categories.

Staffing

A stable workforce of qualified staff enhances patients' overall well-being. California SNFs rank high compared to most states on staffing measures.

Hours of licensed vocational nursing care per patient per day #1
Nursing staff turnover #4

Staffing adjusted for acuity:

Total nurse hours on the weekend (case mix adjusted) #4

Total nurse hours (case mix adjusted) #4

Total RN hours (case mix adjusted ) #4

Patient Mobility

Promoting overall long stay patient health and mobility is a priority of California SNFs.

Preventing decline in daily living activities #4

Preventing incontinence #1

Preventing falls with injuries #2

Ability to walk independently #3

Vaccinations

Vaccines are a safe and effective way to prevent the spread of infectious diseases. California SNFs rank high compared to most states in ensuring patients receive flu and pneumonia vaccinations.

Flu vaccine – short stay patients #2

Flu vaccine – long stay patients #1

Pneumonia vaccine – short stay patients #3

Pneumonia vaccine – long stay patients #4