- Willows Post Acute, Willows
- Windsor Country Drive Post Acute, Fremont

The program involves a rigorous three-level process that evaluates the capabilities of long-term care organizations against nationally recognized standards for excellence. It helps facilities identify critical areas for improvement, implement a plan to be stronger, resilient and more successful.

“California’s skilled nursing providers are continually striving to strengthen the quality of care and services they provide every day,” said Cassie Dunham, CEO/President of the California Association of Health Facilities (CAHF). “Earning this national recognition highlights the dedication, compassion, and professionalism of caregivers and facility teams committed to delivering exceptional care and improving the lives of those they serve.”

The Bronze – Commitment to Quality Award is the first of three progressive award levels with each one requiring a more detailed demonstration of superior performance.
